CON29M Coal Mining Search

Our residential and commercial coal mining searches are produced in accordance with CON29M guidance from The Law Society (2018) and are prepared using The Coal Authority official data.

Our clear concise searches outline if the property or land is at risk from past, present or future mining activity, providing interpretation and professional opinion.

Why use us?
Established in 1978, we are experts, providing robust, clear and concise opinions. Trusted specialists in assessing the legacy of historical mining activity.

What's included:
- Answers all official CON29M coal mining questions
- Past, present and future underground and opencast coal mining
- Details of any coal mine entires within 20 metres
- Susbsidence damage claims within 50 metres

What you can expect:
- £10 million Professional Indemnity Insurance
- Data change insurance cover up to £100,000
- 1 day turnaround
- Nationwide coverage - England, Scotland and Wales
- Universally accepted by lenders

Innovative solutions for your project
CON29M Coal Mining Search

Deeper Mining Insight
www.miningsearchesuk.com | T: 01209 218861 | E: search@miningsearchesuk.com